

The background of the entire advertisement is a photograph of railway tracks. The tracks are heavily covered with fallen autumn leaves in various shades of orange, red, and brown. The perspective is from a low angle, looking down the length of the tracks as they recede into the distance. The lighting is soft, suggesting an overcast day.

We can't change the weather. But it can change your plans.

Leaves on the tracks can be as slippery as ice, so sometimes we slow down trains to get you home safely.
